CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Dress Code

First Baptist Christian School exists to serve families that are sincerely committed to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Our desire at the school is to do all things to bring pleasure to Jesus and to uphold His testimony. We have a responsibility to students and to parents to establish institutional procedures, rules and practices which will honor God, aid the learning process, and seek the best interests of our students. Our dress code meets these criteria in several ways:

- 1. It can be a positive way to please God who, through His Word, has established principles of modesty and proper decorum.
- 2. It can teach a student to respect authority that has been placed over him/her in the school environment.
- 3. It can foster a better learning environment with fewer distractions.
- 4. It can be crucial to a student's safety in the hallways and in the classrooms.

In all aspects of our lives, we are ambassadors for God and for His school. Our true image comes from Him and not the standards of the world. While we recognize that true Christianity is a matter of the heart and not the outward appearance, it is true, however, that our appearance is important in the light of God's Word. The Apostle Peter identifies the real issue when he states that our attractiveness should not be based on what we wear, but on the "hidden person of the heart... even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit." By our dress standards we represent the feelings and thoughts of our hearts. We should desire to honor God and his Word by our overall appearance, including the types of clothing we wear, and how others see it. Extremes in dress, style, makeup or jewelry are to be avoided. Apparel that appears to be suggestive or has the trademark of a segment of society that is decidedly ungodly in its influence is not acceptable. Regardless of current standards and tastes of society, we believe that modesty, neatness, appropriateness, and gender distinctiveness are the fundamentals of a dress code which aims to please God by honoring His standards.

Scripture has much to say about our attitudes and how we appear to the world. Several Scripture passages support our rationale behind the dress code:

Romans 12: 1-2 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

1 John 2: 15-17 Do not love the world or the things of the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is on the world.

1 Peter 3: 3-4 Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel—rather let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.

Deuteronomy 22:5 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

Ephesians 4:8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there is anything praiseworthy—think on these things.

The school's dress code should be upheld by parents, students, and faculty. Students arriving at school dressed inappropriately may not be permitted to attend class until they change clothing, and this may require a parent to bring a change of clothes.

Revised 12/9/2015

The administration reserves the right to determine the appropriateness of any article of clothing.
